Attn: Adam Ragan, Reports Analyst

Reference: 1998 General Election Debt

Dear Mr. Ragan:

I am writing to alert you that we received a contribution several days ago from Laborer's Political League in the amount of $ 2,000.00 (copy attached.) The check is dated 1/13/99 and in the memo it says "1998 Gen. Def." This contribution was reported on the Laborers FEC Report, Schedule B, as being paid on 1/13/99. It was also reported as a disbursement towards our 1998 General Election Debt (copy attached.) They said they had misplaced the check and it was recently discovered and forwarded to us.

On our 12/31/98 FEC report we had a net debt of $ 23,333.20. Because the Laborer's contribution was disbursed shortly after we reported our debts it is our belief that it can be designated for the 1998 General Election Debt.

We would appreciate your advice on whether our treatment of this belated contribution is the correct one.
